The United States of America by and through the undersigned Assistant United States Attorney hereby moves this court pursuant to Rule 35 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure for a reduction in sentence for the above entitled defendant.

Mr. White has already served the incarceration component of the sentence he received from this Court. He is now approximately halfway through his period of supervised release. Last year Mr.
White testified for the government in a trial in this District. Mr.
White's testimony, I believe, was very credible. He made himself available at all times when we requested him to work on his preparation and did whatever was requested of him to try to assist

1 the government in its prosecution. Based on Mr. White's cooperation 2 the government believes he deserves additional credit. Accordingly
3 the government requests that the Court reduce the defendant's period 4 of supervised release by one year. We believe that this reduction 5 will adequately reward the defendant for his cooperation while 6 reflecting the seriousness of the offense in which he was involved.
